Important Statement

This income execution directs the withholding of up to 10 percent of the judgment debtor's gross income. In certain cases, however, state or federal law does not permit the withholding of that much of the judgment debtor's gross income. The judgment debtor is referred to New York Civil Practice Law and Rules § 5231 and 15 United States Code § 1671 et seq.

Pursuant to CPLR 5205(1), $2,625 of an account containing direct deposit or electronic payments reasonably identifiable as statutorily exempt payments, as defined in CPLR 5205(1)(2), is exempt from execution and the garnishee cannot levy upon or restrain $2,625 in such an account.

Pursuant to CPLR 5222(I), an execution shall not apply to an amount equal or less than 90% of the greater of 240 times the federal minimum hourly wage prescribed in the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 or 240 times the state minimum hourly wage prescribed in Labor Law 652 as in effect at the time the earnings are payable, except such part as a court determines to be unnecessary for the reasonable requirements of the judgment debtor and his or her dependents.

 SEE REVERSE SIDE **

I Limitations on the amount that can be withheld

A. An income execution for installments from a judgment debtor's gross income cannot exceed ten percent (10%) of the judgment debtor's gross income.

B. If a judgment debtor's weekly disposable earnings are less than the greater of thirty (30) times the current federal minimum wage ($7.25 per hour), or $217.50 or the New York State minimum wage ($8.00 per hour) or $240.00 no deduction can be made from the judgment debtor's earnings under this income execution.

C. A judgment debtor's weekly disposable earnings cannot be reduced below the amount arrived at by multiplying thirty (30) times the greater of the current federal minimum wage ($7.25 per hour), or $217.50 or the New York State minimum wage ($8.00 per hour) or $240.00 under this income execution.

D. If deductions are being made from a judgment debtor's earnings under any orders for alimony, support or maintenance for family members or former spouses, and those deductions equal or exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings, no deduction can be made from the judgment debtor's earnings under this income execution.

E. If deductions are being made from a judgment debtor's earnings under any orders for alimony, support or maintenance for family members or former spouses, and those deductions are less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings, deductions may be made from the judgment debtor's earnings under this income execution. However, the amount arrived at by adding the deductions from earnings made under this execution to the deductions made from earnings under any orders for alimony, support or maintenance for family members or former spouses cannot exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings.
NOTE: Nothing in this notice limits the proportion or amount which may be deducted under any order for alimony, support or maintenance for family members or former spouses.

II. Explanation of limitationsDefinitions

Disposable Earnings - Disposable earnings are that part of an individual's earnings left after deducting those amounts that are required by law to be withheld (for example, taxes, social security and unemployment insurance, but not deductions for union dues, insurance plans, etc.).
Gross Income - Gross income is salary, wages or other income, including any and all overtime earnings, commissions, and income from trusts, before any deductions are made from such income.

Illustrations regarding earningsIf disposable earnings is:

(a) 30 times the greater of the federal minimum wage
($217.50) or the New York State minimum wage
($240.00) or less
(b) more than 30 times the greater of the federal minimum wage ($217.50) or the New York State minimum wage ($240.00) and less than 40 times the greater of the federal minimum wage ($240.00) or the New York State Minimum Wage ($290.00)

Amount to pay or deduct from earnings under this income execution is:
No payment or deduction allowed.

The lesser of: the excess over the greater of 30 times the federal minimum wage ($217.50) or the New York State minimum wage ($240.00) in disposable earning, or of 10% of gross earnings.

The lesser of: 25% of disposable earnings or 10% of gross earnings.

III. Notice: You may be able to challenge this income execution through the procedures provided in CPLR § 5231(i) and CPLR § 5240.

If you think that the amount of your income being deducted under this income execution exceeds the amount permitted by state or federal law, you should act promptly because the money will be applied to the judgment. If you claim that the amount of your income being deducted under this income execution exceeds the amount permitted by state or federal law, you should contact your employer or other person paying your income. Further, YOU MAY CONSULT AN ATTORNEY, INCLUDING LEGAL AID IF YOU QUALIFY. New York State law provides two procedures through which an income execution can be challenged.

CPLR § 5231(i) Modification. At any time, the judgment debtor may make a motion to a court for an order modifying an income execution.
CPLR § 5240 Modification or protective order: supervision of enforcement. At any time, the judgment debtor may make a motion to a court for an order denying, limiting, conditioning, regulating, extending or modifying the use of any post-judgment enforcement procedure, including the use of income executions.

Case 2:15-cv-03516-DRH-GRB Document 5-1 Filed 07/01/15 Page 28 of 32 PageID #: 104

"Associates" received the funds back as it was determined that Mr. Livia's claim was frivolous, as he did authorize the transactions and signed the documents pertaining to those transactions.

We are pleased to inform you that all the accounts which "Saban and Associates" was retained for was removed with the exception of one derogatory account from "Fortis capital LLC", court index number CV-048883-11K1. This is the only item that is currently appearing on Mr. Livia's credit report, which was not yet completed. However the court record reflects that this case has been dismissed on February 6, 2015 by Honorable Judge Noach Dear. A copy of such dismissal is attached for your review.

Please take further notice that we have contacted the three credit bureaus and provided them with the court documents in order to delete this judgment from Mr. Giovanni Livia's credit report. Please be advised that it may take 30-45 days for the credit bureaus to adjust and remove the derogatory information that is currently appearing as the only derogatory item on Mr. Livia's report.

Therefore the outstanding balance currently due to "Saban and Associates" for services provided but not yet paid is $2,520.00 with the remaining outstanding balance of $750.00, which "Saban and Associates" will claim once the judgment is completely removed from Mr Livia's report. At this point "Saban and Associates" has complied with your request to validate the account and provide you with all the information and documents pertaining to this matter. Again, Giovanni Livia's outstanding balance for services provided is currently: $2,520.00. Since those services have been completed we expect Mr. Livia to fulfill his part of the agreement and make the necessary payments without further delay.

"Saban and Associates" is prepared to resolve this matter amicably rather than litigate this matter and seek to recover all costs and attorney fees from Mr. Livia that may incur in litigation.

Should you have any questions in reference to the information I provided, you may visit our office Monday through Thursday between the hours of 12:00 pm and 9:00 pm, Eastern Time.

We look forward to receiving your response.

Very truly,

Saban and Associates

Subject: Order to Show cause

Good morning Mr. Livia,

I apologize for the delay.

Attached please find 2 orders to show cause and instructions (same for both cases). I would advise you not to file both orders in one day. You may file one OSC when you go to the court next time for the next scheduled hearing date (in reference to Capital One case), and then the second one on the date when you will go there for the first scheduled hearing in reference to the second OSC. Does it make any sense?

Feel free to call us with any questions.

Lena

State of New York, County of Kings ss.:

GIOVANNI LIVIA, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a defendant and I am making this request in support of the Order to Show Cause to vacate a default judgment, and dismiss this case for lack of personal jurisdiction pursuant to CPLR 5015(a)(4).
2. The court lacks personal jurisdiction because the Summons and Complaint were not served properly. I have never received the court documents in reference to this matter.
3. Alternatively, the default judgment should be vacated pursuant to CPLR 5015(a)(1) and the case restored to the calendar and the attached Proposed Answer deemed timely filed.
4. I did not file an answer to the Complaint with the court because of the following excusable default:
 - a. I never received the court papers.
5. I have the following meritorious defense(s):
 - a. I do not owe the money.
 - b. I am a victim of identity theft or mistaken identity.
 - c. I have no business relationship with the plaintiff so the plaintiff lacks standing.

6. I have not asked for a previous Order to Show Cause in this case.

Relief

7. WHEREFORE, I request that the judge vacate any judgment, lift any and all restraints and executions, order restitution, and upon vacatur, dismiss this case for lack of personal jurisdiction, or in the alternative, deem the attached Proposed Answer timely filed, restore the case to the calendar, grant me permission to serve these papers myself, and grant me such other and further relief as may be just.

RE: Saban and Associates vs. Giovanni Livia

Dear Mr. Livia

As you are well aware your outstanding balance is currently reflecting the amount of $3,270.00. Please be advised that numerous requests have been made to clear this balance, but all our attempts to reach you in resolving this matter have gone unanswered.

Furthermore please be advised that we have contacted you and your family members and advised you to stop in our office so we can discuss your account however every appointment that we have made has not been kept by you.

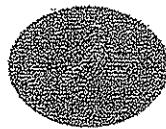

Therefore this letter shall serve as a final demand, that unless payments are made or a payment arrangement is made within 5 days of receiving this letter, "Saban and Associates" will pursue to collect your outstanding balance by referring your account to our legal corporate council for further legal action against you. Seeking all remedies available, "Saban and Associates" as the prevailing party in such action, will be entitled to recover its attorney fees and any other costs from you.

We trust that you will cooperate in resolving this matter without further delay rather than incur substantial expenses regarding this matter.

RE: SABAN AND ASSOCIATES VS. GIOVANNI LIVIA

Dear Mrs. Rosa Livia,

Per our phone conversation dated today, March 26, 2015, in reference to your son, Giovanni Livia's outstanding balance which includes derogatory information and public records that appear on his personal credit report dated, June 30, 2014.

Please allow me to share some information with you. Your son, Mr. Giovanni Livia came to our office on September 2, 2014 and requested our services in adjusting and removing certain derogatory information that appeared on his personal credit report.

Mr. Livia executed several documents that were required for us to represent him in this process. He has signed an application, retainer agreement, an affidavit of fraud, a power of attorney, and submitted a copy of his driver's license and social security card as part of the documents that were requested from him in order to proceed on his behalf.

Please be advised that Mr. Livia provided us with a copy of his credit report dated June 30, 2014 which is three months prior of Mr. Livia retaining our services on September 2, 2014. The attached credit report reflects the information provided by Mr. Livia as it appeared on his credit report dated June 30, 2014.

Based on that report "Saban and Associates" provided Mr. Livia with the retainer amount that was required to remove and adjust the derogatory information that appeared on his personal credit report dated June 3, 2014.

We also obtained other credit reports on that date, which copies of such are attached for your review. Mr. Giovanni Livia signed the retainer agreement and "Saban and Associates" proceeded with the services requested by Mr. Livia. Please note that Mr. Livia did make two credit card payments. One dated September 2, 2014 and one dated October 22, 2014, which then Mr. Livia disputed those charges as fraud. We have contacted the card processor and requested mediation to review Mr. Livia's allegations. The result of the mediation was that "Saban and

Waiving none, but reserving all of "Saban and Associates" rights and defenses, we look forward to having your response.

PLEASE GOVERN YOURSELF ACCORDINGLY
